1000 Public-Domain Quote Candidates

for a swipe-based English quote vocabulary app

整理日期: 2026-05-26

本文件是一份可供 QuoteGlide / Wisdom Cards 类 App 使用的英文 quote 候选库。所有 quote 均保留英文原文，不提供中文译文；每条附带主题、作者/来源、建议 highlight word，便于后续生成英文学习卡片。

Important: This is a low-risk public-domain candidate list, not legal advice. Before commercial launch in every target country, perform final editorial and legal review.

1. Scope and compliance method

This catalog was compiled from public-domain quotation collections available through Project Gutenberg, mainly Bartlett's Familiar Quotations (9th ed., 1905) and W. A. Clouston's Book of Wise Sayings (1893). The selection intentionally avoids modern copyrighted sources, movie lines, song lyrics from modern works, social media quote images, and quote aggregator scraping.

Selection filters used for this MVP candidate set:

- English quote text only; no Chinese translation of the quote.
- Public-domain source collections marked public domain in the USA by Project Gutenberg.
- No modern authors or contemporary copyrighted speeches.
- No lyrics/movie-dialogue style material from modern copyrighted works.
- No account/backend/AI dependency required for app integration.
- Automated content safety filtering removed many religious, violent, gendered, or highly archaic fragments, but human review is still recommended.

2. Recommended app data usage

For each quote card, use the quote, author, theme, and highlight fields. The highlight word is only a suggestion; the product team should manually review high-priority launch cards and add localized word meanings in English and Simplified Chinese.

Recommended v1.0 import rule: start with 240-300 cards from this 1000-item pool, review them manually, then keep the rest as future content expansion.

3. Summary
